Jay Allans Entertain Jamboreers

Torrance was well represented at a party arranged Saturday evening at the Walnut Park home of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Allen, formerly of Torrance.

A barbecue dinner was served and later recordings of vocal selections made earlier in the season were heard and new recordings made.

Cards rounded out the enjoyable evening for the "Saturday Night Jamboreers," Messrs. and Mrs. Fred Bever, J. E. Miller, John H. Fess, A. Shriner, H. Archer Lewis, all of Torrance; William Childs, Lomita; Roland Alsea of Huntington Park, and the hosts.

C. E. GUILD PLANS BREAKFAST, RUMMAGE

Plans were outlined at the recent monthly meeting of Central Evangelical Guild for two benefit affairs. The first, a breakfast to suit the early rising business man and others not required to be out so early, will be served from 7 a.m. until noon, in Guild Hall, Arlington at Marcelina avenue on Wednesday, September 28.

The menu will include tomato juice, scrambled eggs, and bacon, homemade bran muffins, jellies, jams, and coffee.

Instead of a set admission fee, the ladies will accept a freewill offering, it was learned. Assisting as hostesses will be members of the Women's Missionary Society and the Alt. Guild of the church. Everyone is invited.

Also planned as an early fall ways and means project by the C. E. Guild is a rummage sale, set for Friday and Saturday, October 14 and 15. Mrs. Alice Spehner, Guild president, Mrs. Maude Lock, and Mrs. Grace Harpör will serve as chairmen for the two-day sale.

Judge John A. Shidler read the marriage lines in a simple service performed in his suite.

Attendants were Mrs. Stella DuCharme Matherly, sister of the bride, and C. W. Heaton, lifetime friend of the bridegroom.

A reception for the immediate families of the couple followed at the Lomita home of Mrs. Matherly.

Mr. Woolley came to California from Athens, Ohio, three years ago, first establishing law offices in Lomita and later moving to Torrance.

The happy couple will make their temporary home in Redondo Beach pending the construction of a new residence in Hollywood Riviera.

Actors Repeat Comedy Play in Wilmington

By popular demand the Banning Actors Company is giving a repeat performance on September 24 of their new play "Penny Wise." The play, which was presented last week, is a sophisticated comedy, and will be given at the Banning Home Theatre in Wilmington at 8:30 p.m.

The cast of "Penny Wise" was gratified at the reception of the first two performances and they feel the public will be interested to know that a repeat performance is scheduled for Saturday night.

On the same bill will be the "Baseball Four," a pantomime team, who created a sensation as an impromptu act during the Sunday night performance.

Helpful pointers on good news paper writing and rules for compiling press books were discussed when approximately 50 members of Junior Women's Clubs throughout Los Angeles District met Thursday evening in American Legion Hall at Pacific Palisades for a press conference. Presiding over the meeting was Mrs. Jerry Jenkins of Pacific Palisades, district publicity chairman. Assisting her was Mrs. Regis C. Jones of Torrance, district press book chairman.

Honored guests introduced by Mrs. Jenkins included Miss Virginia Tilley, district president, Dora Mae Preister, and Clara MacClure of the Santa Monica "Outlook"; and Jessie, Jean Marsh of Los Angeles "Times."

Mrs. Jenkins explained the preparation and content of good newspaper articles while Mrs. Jones told how the clipped articles should appear in club year books. Among books displayed at the conference was last year's press book from the Torrance Junior Women's Club which placed third in the judging for all district books last spring.

Attending the press conference from Torrance were Mrs. Jones was Mrs. Phillip Jensen, local Junior Club President.

Home Setting for Dinner

The Masonic Temple Association was host to 100 Lomitans and their guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Faulkner on 262nd street when a steak dinner was served in their spacious patio with a capable committee in charge.

Preparing the dinner, frying the steaks, arranging tables and washing dishes until a late hour were Messrs. and Mrs. John Graham, Murray Little, Les Parson, Bert Washburn Jr., David Vandette, Aubrey Matthews, Paul Russell, the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Faulkner, Miss Lillian Faulkner and others who ably assisted in many ways to make the day a memorable one for the organization.

Speaker Advises Planting of Trees by Home Owners

Trees and the important part they play in the landscaping of even the smallest yard highlighted a most interesting talk given Thursday night before members of the Lomita Fuchsia Club by Lydia Birt of Gardena.

Straying from her original subject on "Preparation of the garden for next spring," the speaker told of her own impressions of the Texas panhandle with its miles and miles of barren land as she remembered it as a child. Then she recounted her own experiences of planting 160 acres of that land in wheat only to have the seed all blown away and with it went her dreams. In years later the people of that country found that their future was only secure with the planting of trees to break the wind and they did, the speaker said, and saved their crops. With this impression so firm in her mind Mrs. Birt told how well the smaller trees blend with the landscaping of the ordinary yard particularly in patios and for shade purposes.

Mrs. Dorothy Faulkner presided and conducted the election of two new officers, Mrs. Helen Garcia for the office of first vice-president and Mrs. Marilyn Lee, auditor. Mrs. E. Carstens also was appointed as parliamentarian.

Mrs. English offered to assist Orange Street PTA by taking charge of a flower booth at their carnival slated for September 30 at the school.

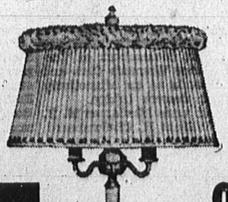

Earl Wiltze, newly-elected president of the Redondo area Begonia Society; Mrs. Arlene Stoddard, former secretary of the Lomita Fuchsia Club; Mrs. R. O. Somers and Mr. C. W. Winner were admitted to club membership. Birthdays of members were appropriately observed with Mrs. J. Bader, Mrs. E. A. Stump, Mrs. C. W. Winner, Mrs. Geneva Fisher and Mr. C. O. Elpper as honorees.

An array of lovely fall plants was displayed for the plant sale and refreshments were served by Mrs. C. W. Winner and her assistants who were Mrs. Dorothy Faulkner, Miss Lillian Faulkner, and Mrs. Besie Myrick.
